A graduate of Texas State University, Katie is a strong addition to the Marketing4Notaries team. As the founder and owner of contentxkatiemedia, her creative, solutions-oriented approach to design has increased organic traffic across various social media platforms. While she tracks performance metrics and analytics to monitor the success of a campaign, Katie is also very adept at staying on top of the latest social media trends and creating attention-grabbing posts.

She lives in Houston, TX with her boyfriend and is a dog-mom to her miniature dachshund, Ricky and her black lab, Kai.
